The Fall/Winter Dance Roundup

As a follow-up to last month's Culture Guide, we went a little deeper into dance, which is a particularly great holiday break option for little ones. And speaking of kids, there's a Nutcracker production in each of the cities below—though the Parisian interpretation is best suited for adults.

L.A. Contemporary Dance Company is actually a non-profit and their mission is to make dance accessible to all, particularly kids. In the decade they've been around, they've put on some exceptionally choreographed shows with talented, mostly local, dancers. Their latest is a collaboration between four local choreographers, each doing a moving interpretation of Spring, Summer, Fall, or Winter.
